POLO WILL DRAW WELL

Game for McKinley Fund of Great Promise.

TICKETS IN DEMAND
BY SOCIETY FOLK

List of Officials Who Will Be in Charge of Game—Sonniers Planned.

With a blaze of society glory, won by earnest and consistent work, the season of the Oahu Polo Club will close on Saturday after a game which promises to draw an immense crowd to Kaplani Park. The game is that for the benefit of the McKinley Memorial fund, and from the way the tickets are going the attendance will be one which will break the records.

The teams have been hard at work for the game, and if practice counts there should be such play as will be worth the attention of any devotee of the sport. The members have been at work in the early morning and there is little else to be said than that there has been such a final tuning up of men and ponies as will make the play fast, at the very least. The ponies are getting into the best of shape, though there was one mishap to the red team, in the disabling of one of the ponies of Shingle, an animal which classes as one of the very best ponies in the league.

The band will be on hand at 3 o'clock and play will commence at 3:30 o'clock. The officials of the day will be S. E. Damon, umpire; Albert Waterhouse and C. W. Dickey, referees; J. P. Erdman and F. T. P. Waterhouse, line-men; Ernest A. Mott-Smith, timekeeper. While these gentlemen will have to do with the game proper, there will be a reception committee, which will include every member of the club, and which will devote its time to the placing of visitors, where they will have the very best view of the field.

A souvenir program, with sketches by Yardley and Dunn, will be distributed, and in addition there will be ribbons of the colors of the opposing teams, red and blue, which will have a legend setting forth the occasion for the game, and giving the names of the teams with blanks where the final score may be inserted for the purpose of keeping a record of the game. These souvenirs will be sold for the benefit of the McKinley fund, too, and without doubt will add to the revenues of the day. There has been a large sale of tickets by the corps of agents and at the principal stores, and there seems to be every reason to expect the presence of a crowd which will fill the park as it has not yet been filled for the purpose of witnessing a polo game.

The members of the Oahu Polo Club, which is giving the benefit for the McKinley fund, are: S. E. Damon, president; J. P. Cooke, vice president; W. F. Dillingham, captain; John L. Fleming, secretary; George C. Potter, treasurer; A. F. Judd and Lieut. G. R. Hancock, directors; Cushman Carter, F. C. Atherton, George C. Fuller, F. T. P. Waterhouse, Rev. J. P. Erdman, C. H. W. Norton, Charles S. Dole, F. H. B. Harrison, Dr. Robt. McAdory, Judge A. Perry, R. W. Shingle, C. S. Judd, Henry Damon, F. B. Damon, B. G. Holt, C. W. Dickey, C. H. Cooke, Albert Waterhouse, A. W. Carter, A. Lewis Jr., C. A. Rice, George Angus, R. W. Atkinson, S. H. Ballou, P. R. Heim, J. T. Irvine, H. A. Bigelow, G. P. Judd and H. M. Mott-Smith.

Every member of the club has shown much interest in the close of the season, and C. W. Dickey has given especial care to the preparation of the field, which has been rolled several times for the game. All his attention has produced a field which will be in excellent condition if the present fine weather holds for another day.

RECEPTION FOR MISS GRACE COOKE

Mrs. Charles H. Atherton Gives an at Home in Her Honor.

Mrs. Charles H. Atherton entertained yesterday afternoon from 3 to 6, at her residence on King street, in honor of Miss Grace Cooke of Oakland. She was assisted by Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. J. B. Atherton and Mrs. W. O. Atwater in receiving the two hundred guests. The afternoon was perfect, and the residence presented a pretty scene. Upon the lawn on the Walkiki side of the house was a marquee open on the mauka side to the breezes from the Pali. The entrance was flanked with tall, waving palms, cut branches concealing the guys. Within were a number of small tables covered with the whitest of napery, and on each was a vase filled with radiantly beautiful carnations of red and pink. Refreshments were served there throughout the afternoon, a number of young ladies being present in the roles of waitresses.
